Ohio Risk Assessment System (ORAS) Training and Certification

2-day/16 Hour Training – The Ohio Risk Assessment System (ORAS) is a dynamic risk/needs assessment system to be used with adult offenders. It offers the ability to assess individuals at various decision points across the criminal justice system. More specifically, the ORAS is comprised of 5 tools: 1) pre-trial; 2) prison intake; 3) community supervision; 4) reentry from a long-term prison stay (4+ years); and 5) reentry from a short-term prison stay (< 4 years). The ORAS is in the public domain and therefore, free but In order to use the ORAS, individuals should be trained and certified.
